

An Ode to Psychometric Testing

MONTREAL, CANADA – (PR NEWSWIRE) – October 8, 2009

An Ode to Psychometric Testing

No slackers, chit chatters, tardy-arrivers or nappers,
No procrastinators, excuse-makers, credit-hoggers or time wasters.
No micromanagers, moonlighters, power trippers or dictators.
No bullies, prima donnas, know-it-alls, or naysayers.

Unqualified employees are no longer a worry,
Or quick-stepping job jumpers heading out in a hurry,
That chronic complainer with nothing to offer but so much to gain
Is now taking orders at the nearest fast food chain.

Every new candidate that comes through the door
Is put to the test to get to their core.
Their communication, motivation, and team orientation,
Their resilience, spatial reasoning, and clerical administration.
Psychtests Inc. helps me choose the crème de la crème,
Among all the pebbles I can now find my gem.

Their snappy new site is clean-cut and inviting,
With so many tests both comprehensive and enlightening,
I gave them a call and they even customized my request,
At such a great price it took a load off my chest.

All tests are well researched, each question selected,
Inspected, re-tested, analyzed, perfected.
They can test anyone on any side of the sea,
Helping HR managers, dating sites, and even the MLB!

Invest your money wisely in these very tough times,
I'll cut to the chase and explain all the rhymes,
To hire the best and help your company succeed,
Psychometric testing is what you'll really need.
